

Chance to present
and publish

Student Prize Essay Competition on Clinical Hypnosis

The British Society of Clinical and Academic Hypnosis invites students of all years, registered at UK universities and colleges on 30th April 2017 studying Medicine, Dentistry, Psychology or any profession allied to medicine, to submit an essay on the subject of Clinical Hypnosis, entitled:

Hypnosis, meditation, guided imagery, relaxation therapy and mindfulness are therapies that have similarities and differences. Compare and contrast the inter-relationship between these therapies using the evidence from physiological and psychological research

Submissions of no more 3000 words, with suitable references in the Harvard format will be accepted and judged for the following prizes:

1st Prize: £100 & Free place on the Society's Foundation Course*

2nd Prize: Free place on the Society's Foundation Course*

All other submissions reaching an appropriate standard will be awarded £100 off any of the Society's Foundation Course*

which may count towards a University Accredited Diploma*

£100 cash prize!

Deadline:
31st October 2017

Boost your CV!

The winner will be given a free place on the Friday's Scientific Papers Day of the BSCAH Annual Conference to be presented with their award and there may be the potential for suitable winning submissions to be published in a peer reviewed scientific journal.

- BSCAH is a learned society dedicated to the promotion of the academic study and professional practice of Clinical Hypnosis.
- For more information: telephone: 07702 492867 or email: natoffice@bscah.co.uk