If you are not a member of the RSM the details provided here, including your email address and telephone number, may be used to send you details of those products and services provided by the Royal Society of Medicine (RSM) and RSMSS* that we have identified as likely to be of interest to you.

If you do not want to receive information from us by any of the methods listed below please indicate by ticking the corresponding box:

☐ email ☐ post ☐ telephone

* RSMSS (Royal Society of Medicine Support Services Limited) is the wholly owned subsidiary company of the RSM which operates Domus Medica, Chandos House and the members' restaurant, bar and butterfly)

After providing payment you have 48 hours to cancel (by letter, fax or email) and receive a full refund providing there are at least 4 working days to the meeting. Refunds on cancellations after 48 hours will be given only to fees over £10 and will incur a 15% administration charge. No refunds can be given on cancellations made less than 4 working days of the meeting. Places are guaranteed only upon written confirmation. Acceptance on to the meeting is at the discretion of the organiser. If pre-payment has not been made by the date of the event, the organiser reserves the right to refuse admission. If you requested to be invoiced for the event, you will be asked to provide credit card details on the day if payment has not been received. Your card will be charged if payment is not received within 5 working days. Concession rates such as student rates or bursary rates are only available to full time students and a proof of eligibility might be asked at any time. Failure to provide it will result in the delegate being charged the most expensive rate for that event. Delegate substitutions are possible up to 4 days prior to the event and free of charge, however when the substitution entails changing to a different event, a 15% admin charge will incur and if the event fee is different the delegate will incur the extra charge. Registrations will not be accepted over the telephone. If catering is being provided, any special dietary requirements are required at least four working days before the event. If you request different catering on the day you will be charged £10 plus the cost of the meal and your meal could be delayed. The RSM itself accepts no legal responsibility for the facts stated or opinions expressed during this meeting. It is the responsibility of the attendees to satisfy him/herself as to which part(s) of those facts/opinions should be relied on in any way whatsoever. In the event the RSM cancels the meeting, our liability will be limited to registration fees already paid to the Society for the meeting. When a meeting is jointly organised with an external partner, your data might be passed on to them unless you opt out by ticking the relevant box on the booking form. Terms and conditions correct at time of printing and we reserve the right to amend these.

How might we fix it? An exploration into how hypnoanalysis can aid treatment options

Monday 18 September 2017

The Hypnosis & Psychosomatic Medicine Section at the RSM will be hosting a half day masterclass given by Dr Mike Gow, Dentist at The Berkeley Clinic Glasgow and Past President of The British Society of Medical and Dental Hypnosis Scotland. Dr Mike Gow will introduce and detail 'COMPISS', an effective and rapid hypnoanalysis technique. Case examples will also be cited with description of the subsequent treatments and techniques used to overcome the issues identified.

Objectives

- Understand how to use ideomotor signalling in hypnoanalysis.
- List what the letters in the acronym COMPISS stand for.
- Understand the specific questions that should be asked in the technique.
- Know how to utilise specific techniques to manage any issues identified by the hypnoanalysis.
